

9/20/26 Updates

Where we are right now:

Our Project Funding

We continue to pursue multiple paths at the same time to generate the funds to purchase the Surety Bond, the most direct and fastest route available. The Lender expressed being pleased with our team's progress towards satisfying their requirement to purchase the Surety Bond.

Our Funding Progress:

1. Investors

- We are maintaining close communication with investor sources we work to move the process forward.

2. Real Estate Assets:

As previously mentioned, a member of our team made two properties in Dayton, Ohio available for us to use toward funding. We intend to use them as collateral for a loan or sell them to generate the funds.

- Update: We have seen increased activity and offers for both properties, and we're looking for offers that match our financial goals and can close fast.
- We are still open to being introduced to someone any of you may know who is seriously interested in purchasing property in the Dayton, Ohio area.
 - You can email us at dreammationepsupport@gmail.com if you know someone. This is for serious inquiries only.

To summarize:

We are still pursuing multiple paths at the same time to secure the funds needed to purchase the Surety Bond, through the fastest and most direct route available.

- We are in discussions with investors to move the process forward.
- We are receiving increased offers for both properties.
 - If you know someone interested in purchasing the properties, please email us at dreammationepsupport@gmail.com.
